A NEW TOOL FOR WITHDRAWAL

Lucemyra is the first and only non-opioid prescription medicine used in adults to help with the symptoms of opioid withdrawal.

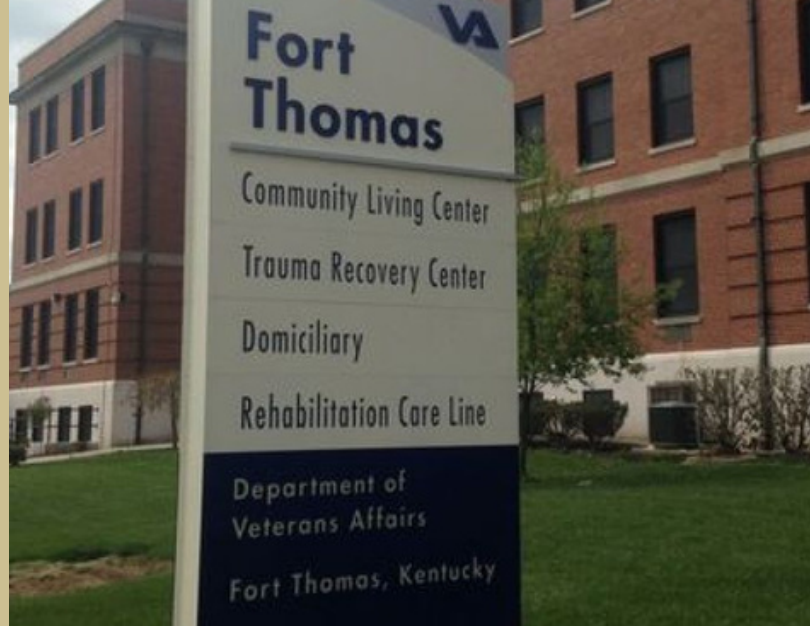

This medication will not completely prevent the symptoms of opioid withdrawal and is not a treatment for OUD. It helps restore chemical balance and helps relieve the symptoms that occur during opioid withdrawal. Based on survey result from patients in a clinical study, Lucemyra provided the biggest improvement in symptom relief on Day 2 and Day 3 of opioid withdrawal, when symptoms were often most severe.

We increased our county reach by adding 7 counties throughout the state to assist with applications outside our 8 county footprint in Southwest Ohio.

We have been invited to and participated in many events in Hamilton and Clermont Counties focusing on Recovery and have volunteered at Weightless Anchor, all stemming from becoming a member of the On the Front Lines Group. ”

Spotlighting Innovation

“ Resurge Recovery's outpatient programming offers several evidence-based options with a mixture of individual counseling, group counseling, medication assisted treatments, & family sessions. All clients will have access to an on-site fitness center, yoga classes, meditation and mindfulness classes, & relapse prevention. We believe in unity of mind, body & spirit. ”
